

ALL THE TALK WAS OF HILL.

HIS SPEECH GREATLY CHEERED THE DEMOCRATIC MANAGERS.

And He Is Going to Make Plenty More.—The Democratic State Committee to meet last night at the Hotel Hamilton, New York, and the Democratic managers of the party were all present.

Senator Hill was the hero of the Democratic camps yesterday. His breakfast at the Hotel Normandy was scarcely over before the faithful in throngs came to grasp his hand, to congratulate him on what they described as the greatest speech he had ever made. He was wished for him all future happiness and distinction. Most of the Senator's visitors had selected some little paragraph in the speech delivered at the Brooklyn Academy of Music the night before which was especially delightful to them. The Senator's declaration that "there is no place in honorable American politics for the political guerrillas who do not attach themselves to either of the great political armies, but who, while swearing allegiance to neither, criticize them both, and fight first upon one side and then upon the other," delighted the Democratic managers. They were all in sympathy with the Senator's declaration, and the Senator himself was heartily congratulated on his Saturday evening. It was said further that the Senator's itinerary includes a visit next week to Virginia and South Carolina. Senator Daniel has requested the aid of Senator Hill in the Old Dominion and Senator Butler has requested the aid of Senator Hill in South Carolina. On his return from the South the Senator, under the auspices of the Democratic State Committee, will speak at Elmira, Syracuse, and elsewhere in the northern and southern tiers. The tobacco growers of Chemung, Onondaga, and Steuben counties are expected to help Senator Hill in his efforts to secure a tariff law, by putting a prohibitory tariff on Sumatra tobacco, has insured them vastly higher prices for their crop. Senator Hill will reason with them.

Secretary Charles R. De Forest of the Democratic State Committee, who has been distributing 100,000 copies of Senator Hill's speech for distribution in the State. When this supply is exhausted another 100,000 will be ordered. Mr. De Forest says that he had orders for 25,000 copies of the speech before it was delivered. Railroad Commissioner Boardley, State Treasurer John C. B. Smith, and ex-Governor Edward W. Wicks, Major J. W. Hinkley, and scores more of Democrats were callers at Hill's office yesterday. The Democratic State Committee, which is now in session at Hoffman House, ordered on Sept. 20, that it nominate a candidate for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Chairman John Quinn of the National Committee, who has been distributing 100,000 copies of Senator Hill's speech by similar order. The National Committee has also ordered that it nominate a candidate for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Chairman William F. Barry, all friends of good government and sound principles, who have been distributing 100,000 copies of Senator Hill's speech by similar order. The National Committee has also ordered that it nominate a candidate for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals.

REMOVING MRS. HARRISON.

The President's Invalid Wife on Her Way to Washington.

LOON LAKE, Sept. 20.—There could have been no more perfect morning than this for removing Mrs. Harrison from here. It had been raining during the night, but the sun came out bright at about 8 o'clock, and the sun brought a clear, bright day. Mrs. Harrison, who had been in bed for some time, was moved to the Custom House yesterday morning, and the news seemed to make her cheerful.

Just prior to the hour of departure there was an imposing array of carriages and buses of all kinds drawn up in front of the hotel. The start was made at the Custom House yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Employees of the hotel lifted the cot on which the invalid lay, and carried it to the waiting vehicle, in which it was conveyed to the railroad station. This vehicle was known as a "mountain wagon," being long and high, with a black waterproof top. The removal was superintended by Dr. Gardner, who had been attending to Mrs. Harrison since she had been in bed.

The journey was made in a comfortable and quiet manner. The wagon was driven by a driver who had been selected for the purpose. The journey was made in a comfortable and quiet manner. ## CHAPIN'S BAGGAGE SEIZED.

MR. E. K. KELLY HAS GOT THE CONGRESSMAN INTO TROUBLE.

Customs Officers Say that No Permit Was Presented.—The Furrier Bismarck, which arrived from Europe last Saturday, was the subject of a search by Customs officers yesterday.

It appears now that it is to Mr. E. K. Kelly that Congressman Chapin and Mrs. Chapin owe the unpleasant harassments which have pursued them ever since their arrival from Europe last Saturday. Who Mr. Kelly is, where he came from, and who inspired him are things that were not ascertained yesterday. All that could be learned was that Mr. Kelly was determined to get on board the Furrier Bismarck, and quite as positive about getting Mr. and Mrs. Chapin off. He had haunted the Custom House for some days prior to the arrival of the Furrier Bismarck, and had made requests for permits to board the ship. He had been refused, and he was determined to get on board the ship.

Mr. Kelly was not to be turned down so easily. When the Furrier Bismarck reached New York, Mr. Kelly went aboard the ship, and he was not to be turned down so easily. ## HIS SON THE SINNER, NOT HE.

Pastor Dawson's Strange Defense to the Long List of Charges Against Him.

CLARKSBURG, Sept. 20.—The case of the Rev. Giles K. Dawson came up on appeal before the M. E. Church South Conference here yesterday, and the decision of the quarterly conference of the Synod of the West, which was held in Clarksville, Tenn., was confirmed.

The case of the Rev. Mr. Dawson is a very curious one, and his defense to the long list of charges against him is equally strange. The minister has had charge of several churches in different parts of this State, but he never has been in any of them since he was expelled from the Synod of the West, which was held in Clarksville, Tenn., in 1887.

URGED ON BY WHITE MEN.

THE CAUSE OF THE RACE WAR IN CALHOUN COUNTY, ARKANSAS.

Little Rock, Sept. 20.—It was first reported that the race war in Calhoun county was due to the dissatisfaction of the negroes with the new election law, but it now appears that the cause was something else.

During the past few weeks several negroes have been taken from their cabins at night and severely flogged by white men. Charles Jones was whipped about a week ago for deserting his wife, a punishment which all the negroes endorsed. Several white men made a living by trading with the negroes, and they were not to be flogged. They were not to be flogged.

Several days they roved about the country in lands, uttering threats of the most incendiary nature. Every white person they met they would threaten and threaten with bodily harm. They would threaten and threaten with bodily harm.

As soon as the deputy and his posse arrived at the camp, they were met by a large number of white men. They were met by a large number of white men.
